

Call 2000

Anne-Marie Glover

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Children, Ancillary Relief, Mental Health and Education

Anne-Marie Glover practises primarily in family law. She has experience of both public law and private law Children Act proceedings; applications for emergency injunctive relief and for committal under Part IV of the Family Law Act 1996; adoption proceedings; and divorce and ancillary relief.

Anne-Marie also has a developing practice in the areas of mental health and education law.

MEMBERSHIPS

The Family Law Bar Association
The Independent Panel for Special Educational Advice