

Call 1983
Warwick University BA

Christina Morris

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Ancillary Relief

Christina Morris is a specialist in all aspects of ancillary relief and has experience at all levels of court and in all types of case. She has particular expertise in cases involving pensions, companies and company accounts, and bankruptcy.

Other areas of Christina's work include the property and financial rights of unmarried couples and children and applications pursuant to s14 Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act and Schedule 1 Children Act. She also has expertise in Inheritance Act cases.

Christina presents seminars on pensions and trusts to the legal profession and advises and contributes to training videos for Television Education Network.

MEMBERSHIPS

The Family Law Bar Association

REPORTED CASES

W v W (Ancillary Relief: Practice) [2000] Fam Law 473

Substantial proceedings for ancillary relief - Procedure for assembling evidence in event of failure of FDR.

M v B (Ancillary Proceedings: Lump Sum) [1998] 1 FLR 53

Costs - Ancillary relief proceedings and proceedings under the Children Act 1989 - Husband found to be more culpable in the proceedings under the 1989 Act