Lynn Freeston

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Family Finance and Property and Private Law Children

Lynn was born in Quebec City, Canada. She read English and Philosophy at the University of Waterloo (undergraduate) and Carleton University (postgraduate) in Canada before relocating to the UK where she then completed two postgraduate business diploma courses and a law degree.

Lynn was called to the Bar in 1996 after a successful career as a senior manager of a multinational company. In 1997 she was employed as in-house Counsel by a leading London firm specialising in cases involving substantial assets and high profile clients. Lynn's business background ideally suits her to a specialist ancillary relief practice, which she combines with private law children cases. She is a member of the Family Law Bar Association.
