

Mental Health Group

The members of the mental health group have experience and expertise in all areas of mental health and mental incapacity law. We provide advice and representation at every level of proceedings before the Mental Health Review Tribunal and judicial review proceedings in applications to the Administrative Court and the Court of Protection. Members of the group have been involved in disputes relating to treatment, displacement of nearest relative, guardianship and restricted cases.

We are able to provide a comprehensive choice of barristers specialising in this area to suit the needs of particular clients and the demands of each case.
