We are holding the following seminars this Autumn. All will be held in chambers and will commence at 6.00 pm. We are accredited by the Solicitors Regulation Authority and the Bar Standards Board for CPD purposes. Except where otherwise stated all of the speakers are members of chambers. For more details of the seminars, please contact Gillian Maguire.

Tuesday 30th September - Assessing Children in International Abduction - Speaker: Terry McGinty, Service Manager with the Cafcass High Court Team.

Tuesday 21st October - Private Child Law Update - Speakers: Alison Easton and Anne-Marie Glover.

Tuesday 11th November - Public Child Law Update - Speakers: Michelle Corbett and David Vavrecka.

Tuesday 9th December - A Practitioner's Guide to the Forced Marriage (Civil Protection) Act 2007 - Speakers: Khatun Sajnara, who advised on the drafting and implementation of the Act, and Shaminder Ubhi, the Director of the Ashiana Project, which provides a refuge for Asian, Turkish and Iranian women who are experiencing domestic violence or are at risk of forced marriage.
