

Pamela Warner
Call 1985
BA Hons (Law) University of Hertfordshire

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Family - Children

Pamela has over twenty years' experience of representing children, guardians, parents and local authorities in public law and adoption cases. She has been involved in a broad spectrum of complex cases, particularly involving sexual abuse, ritual abuse and non-accidental injuries. She also regularly represents children in complex private law disputes.

She has a particular interest in representing young adults who are the subject of care proceedings as both child and parent and also has considerable experience of representing parents with mental health or learning difficulties and other vulnerable adults.

She is a panel member of a North London fostering agency.

MEMBERSHIPS

Family Law Bar Association
Association of Lawyers for Children
British Association for Adoption and Fostering Criminal Bar Association

REPORTED CASES

London Borough of Lambeth v S, C, V and J (By His Guardian) [2006] EWHC 326 (Fam)
[2007] 1 FLR 152

Care proceedings - Disclosure - Whether a family court can order a blood sample or DNA profile obtained and held by police in an investigation of a crime - Application of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, s. 64(1A)

Re X (Emergency Protection Orders) [2006] EWHC 510 (Fam) [2006] 2 FLR 701

Emergency protection orders - Without notice applications - Allegations of emotional abuse, non-specific sexual abuse or fabricated illness - Case conferences - Confidential sections of minutes - Guidance