

Call 1994
University College, London

Sarah Phillimore

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Children and Family Finance & Property

Sarah Phillimore undertakes all aspects of family work including cohabitation claims and applications under TOLATA.

She has a particular interest in family cases involving aspects of immigration and asylum law and from 1999 to 2003 represented clients in asylum and human rights applications against the Home Office.

In 2008, Sarah spent a year on sabbatical in Perth, Western Australia, where she worked at Paterson and Dowding, a specialist family law firm.

AWARDS

J A C Thomas Bar Scholarship (UCL)
Lincoln's Inn Shelford Major Scholarship
Lincoln's Inn Hardwicke Scholarship

MEMBERSHIPS

The Family Law Bar Association
The Immigration Law Practitioners' Association

REPORTED CASES

Re A (Care Proceedings: Asylum Seekers) [2003] 2 FLR 921 FD

Care - Immigration - Family subject to removal directions - Father implied he might kill himself and children - Assessments found no real risk to children - Parents supporting continuation of care proceedings - Whether proceedings to continue

Re B (Disclosure to Other Parties) [2001] 2 FLR 1017

Disclosure - Care proceedings relating to four children - Father of one of children seeking disclosure of all documents filed in court proceedings - European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms